

Working Towards the Future, Together

More minds put to the task

Prostate cancer has become very top of mind to many Canadians, especially men. This shift in the social conscience is due largely in part to the tireless work of our national partner, Prostate Cancer Canada.

Joining the Canadian battle against prostate cancer is a new foundation out of Vancouver, British Columbia called The Coalition to Cure Prostate Cancer. The nonprofit organization has identified unique strategies to invest in the most promising research programs that generate life-saving results.

Shortly after formation, the Coalition secured $1 million in donations and began collecting applications from the country's leading prostate cancer researchers.

The Coalition to Cure Prostate Cancer has announced four Young Investigator awards. These competitive research awards are designed to identify, fund and promote innovative research projects within Canada.

The winning Young Investigators were recommended to the Board from the Coalition to Cure Prostate Cancer Scientific Advisory Committee and were approved during a first quarter Coalition Board of Directors meeting. Each Young Investigator recipient receives funding over a three-year period, which is also matched dollar-for-dollar by each recipient's research institution.

This is certainly an organization to watch and one that hopefully Alberta based prostate cancer research can tap into and one that all Canadian prostate cancer organizations can work with hand in hand.

President's Notes

You may have noticed that this week's column is titled the President's Notes. Jason Bedard who normally writes this column has chosen to step down from his position as our Executive Director and pursue other opportunities.

On behalf of the board of directors I would like to thank Jason for all the great work he has done over the last year and to wish him all the best on his future endeavors. I would also like to thank him for all the help while serving on the board.

Bob Shiell has taken over the position as Executive Director. Bob is a long time member of this support group and held the position of President for 10 years. He was managing director of the Prostate Cancer Canada Network and a vice-president of Prostate Cancer Canada for two years, he retired from these positions last year. His skills and knowledge related to the prostate cancer community have been, and will be, greatly appreciated.

With a new Executive Director there will likely be some changes in the Digital Examiner as everyone has their own individual style. Not to worry it will continue to be the great newsletter it has always been.

On a different topic I would like invite everyone to the upcoming AGM to be held on our usual second Tuesday of the month (May 8th). Don't let the AGM deter you as this will only be a short portion of the meeting. We will still have a DVD presentation by Dr. Rutledge entitled "Complete Prostate Cancer Care".

In addition to our regular meeting on June 12th we will also have an additional meeting on the evening of Monday, June 25. Our special guest will be Dr. Mark Moyad. Mark is Director of Preventive and Alternative Medicine at the University of Michigan Medical Center. He is the author of over 100 articles and 5 books, and, arguably, no doctor has educated more physician and health-care professionals around the world on the subject of diet and dietary supplements. The last time Mark spoke to us in Calgary we attracted over 400. Hold the evening of June 25th and stay tuned for more information. You do not want to miss this return presentation by Dr. Mark Moyad!

That's it for now I hope to see you at the May meeting. In the meantime enjoy the spring weather.
